

I do not want to go through the hassle of telemarketers calling my home again. Indiana and some other states have taken care of this problem by stopping telemarketers from calling and harassing us. Please do not be dupped into preempting our state laws with a lowered federal stadard/law that will allow these telemarketers to again plauge us with their unwanted calls.

Jimmy N. Wright